CAPITAL OVER $250,000,
AND CONSTANTLY INCREASING.
The Charter of this Company offers more favora ble advantages to the farmer and others, than any other Company chartered in the State, by insuring with or without a premium note. If the applicant prefer, he can pay the full amount of the premium in cash, or by effecting a cash insurance for two years, the insured saves one-eighth of the amount he would otherwise have to pay; or by becoming a member, and giving a small premium note, the in-sured saves nearly one-half of the amount charged by Stock Companies, when insuring from year to year. This is the advantage resulting from the ombination of THE CASH AND MUTUAL

PRINCIPLE. This Company commenced issuing Policies against loss or damage by fire, on the 16th of March, 1854, since which time over five thousand seven hundred persons have insured and become members of the Company, and over thirty thousand dollars have been paid for losses. Having trebled our business during the past year, we feel grateful for the liberal patronage bestowed upon the Company thus far, and for its flattering prospects of future usefulness. The Directors and believe, that, by prudence, caution, and a rigid system of economy, they will establish for this Company a reputation for cheapness and safety not surpassed by any Company in the U. States. All differences in settlement of losses, may be determined by three disinterested arbitrators of the

County where such loss happened, to be mutually chosen by the insured and the Company. DIRECTORS: H. W. Thomas, Christopher Neale, R. F. Lester, R. H. Stabler. Sholto T. Stuart. P. D. Lipscomb James T. Close, Edward Sangster, Richard H. Carter, A. R. Blakey. OFFICERS

SELECTED. To the memory of Edgar Washington Decaugha Death, lingering, strikes-at his approach

The trembling spirits faint and die Pale sickness sinks upon his couch, And heaves the painful, parting sigh. In vain for moments of delay, Shall beauty plead with magic power, Relentless he selects his prey,

And grasps the brightest, sweetest flower The youthful heart, with pleasure wild, Elate with mirth, with fancy gay, Soon by his icy touch is chilled,

And life's bright visions fleet away. Thus did our Edgar's moments fly, On wings of joy, with prospects fair, While cloudless was his present sky, And hope, fond hope, his guiding star.

From envy's grasp, with malice armed, His artless smile, his weapon stole;

With transport strange the monster warmed, And wak'd to love his gloomy soul. But why, fond memory, why recall, Those charms which late such pleasure gave Since now, our Edgar's-best of all-

Lies cold, the tenant of the grave, Pale are those cheeks of roseste dye, Their dimpling smiles forever flown; Dim is the brightness of that eye, Which once with lustre shone.

Mute is that voice whose accents sweet. The ear of fond attention drew? Still is that heart which constant beat, To every gentle virtue true. Alas! sha!! death forever reign,

Triumphant, near each scene of bliss? Blast young desire-turn joy to pain, And riot on such spoil as this? Frail mortal, cease-no longer moan, This vain regret, these murmurs still:

And bow to the Almighty's will. The flower, that's fair, its blossoms spreads, And joys to hail the solar ray, At morning fades—yet only fades, To bloom afresh at opening day.

The varying change from nature learn,

To woodland's barren to the sight, New foliage vernal gales shall bring: The insect lives the wintry night, And flutters on the breath of spring. Then, when death's long, long night is o'er, In realms of bliss shall beauty rise,

Arrayed with charms that fade no more,
